STATIONS OF LIFE OF FR. GEORGE GISPERT-SAUCH SJ

* Born on March 30, 1930.
* Entered the Society of Jesus on September 26, 1946.
* Came to India and reached Bombay on December 2, 1949.
* Did one year of Juniorate (Humanity Studies) in Vinayalaya, Bombay.
* Spent one year learning Gujarati in Anand in the present state of Gujarat from 1951 to 1952.
* 1952–1955 he did licentiate in philosophy – one year in De Nobili College in Pune and two years in Sacred Heart College, Shembaganur, Kodaikanal.
* 1955–1959 at Xavier’s College, Bombay: B.A. in Sanskrit and Indian Culture and M.A. in Sanskrit and Pali. Received Zala Vedanta Prize.
* 1959–1963 licentiate in Theology at St. Mary’s College, Kurseong in West Bengal.
* Ordained priest on March 24, 1962 in Bombay.
* 1963 resident for three months in Sanskrit University in Varanasi.
* 1964 appointed to teach at St. Mary’s College in Kurseong.
* 1966 defended his doctorate with very high commendation in Paris.
* 1967 five months in a parish in Bandra, Bombay.
* 1971 onwards he has been teaching theology at Vidyajyoti, Delhi.
* 1972–1982 registrar of the Faculty of Theology at Vidyajyoti, Delhi.
* 1973 taught (one semester) in United Theology Faculty, Melbourne, Australia.
* From 1984 Secretary of Vidyajyoti Journal of Theological Reflection.
* In mid 80s he gave the Teape Lectures at the Divinity School of Cambridge.
* He contributed substantially to the Guidelines for Dialogue and Guidelines for Ecumenism of the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of India.
* He taught in Punjabi University, Patiala, besides giving seminars.
* He continues to teach at Vidyajyoti, College of Theology, Delhi and teaches a course in the M.Th. programme at in St. Peter’s Pontifical Institute, Bangalore.
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Publications of George Gispert-Sauch SJ

BOOKS

ARTICLES

Bibliography

Bibliography

76. “Scholars and globe trotters: Lest we (Jesuits) should forget our own Indologists”, Ignis 12:1 (1983) 32-34.

Bibliography

Bibliography

158. "The Memory of Jesus and Eucharistic Remembering”. In: Body, Bread, Blood. Edited by Francis Gonsalves, SJ Delhi, Vidyajyoti/ISPCK, 2000, 32-47.

159. "La espiritualidad ignaciana ante las religiones (Reflexiones desde la India)", Manresa 72 (2000), 143-156.

161. "La teología Indiana dopo il Vaticano II”, Rassegna di teologia 42:1 (2001), 5-36

